DESCRIPTION

Wrangbeck House is a traditional, detached family house occupying a private plot on the edge of Middleham. The property has recently been fully updated throughout and offers light, airy accommodation across two floors.

The property is entered into a welcoming reception hall with a porcelain tiled floor running throughout and a staircase leading up to the first floor. There are three reception rooms including the living room which has a wooden floor and an open fire. The dining room has French doors out to the garden and the snug could be used as a home office or playroom if required.

The spacious kitchen diner has a good range of fitted units complemented by wooden worktops, a Belfast style sink and an oil-fired Aga. There is space for a dining table and shelving together with a Belfast sink. The kitchen has French doors out to the garden and a useful utility room with the boiler.

To the first floor there are four double bedrooms each being well proportioned. There is also a house bathroom with WC, basin and traditional cast iron freestanding bath.

Externally the property is complemented by gardens which wrap around the front and sides of the property which are mostly laid to lawn with a gravelled patio and areas for planting. The driveway provides off-road parking for several cars and there is a single garage.

Overall, the property would make an excellent family home in a popular location. An early viewing is advised.
